The nationally acclaimed documentary by photojournalist Dan Habib, Including Samuel, comes to public television in October (Disability Awareness Month). For a regularly updated list of broadcasts or to download the Toolkits that provide all the information you need to host your own Including Samuel screening event or party visit www.includingsamuel.com

Anyone age 12-21 that hosts an Including Samuel Movie Party can apply to attend the National Youth Inclusion Summit. Those selected will receive a free, round-trip ticket from anywhere in the continental U.S. to Washington, DC (plus two night's lodging) to attend the Summit on January 9-10, 2010 - for more info visit the website above.

You can also order Including Samuel on DVD by visiting the above website under "store".

 We encourage you to forward this flyer to other interested parties***

The Including Samuel Project is part of the Institute on Disability/UCED, a non-profit 501(c)3 organization at the University of New Hampshire. The project's mission is to build more inclusive schools and communities through curriculum, training, and outreach.
